White Rock Wallabies

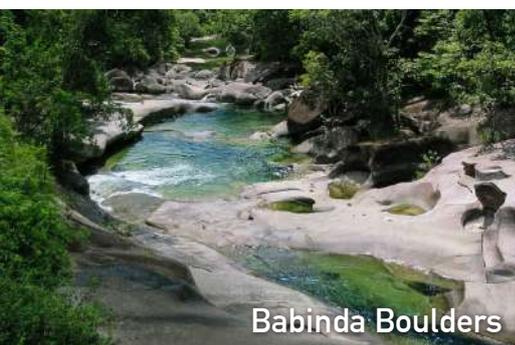

Curtain Fig Tree

Milla Milla Falls

Roscoe's Restaurant

Babinda Boulders

Visit pristine World Heritage Wet Tropics Rainforest and the agricultural Atherton Tablelands. You will spend the day exploring nature from the comfort of your private charter.

08:00am Depart Cairns

08:30am Wallabies at White Rock. Visit an outer southern suburb of Cairns to spot wild wallabies roaming freely across paddocks.

10:00am Arrive Curtian Fig Tree

The unique and gigantic strangler fig is simply not to be missed. Over hundreds of years, it has effectively "strangled" four trees to create a high rise building sized ecosystem that is home to many animals and other plants.

10:30am Depart Curtian Fig Tree

11:00am Arrive Millaa Millaa Falls

One of Australia's most famous waterfalls and home to many active platypuses. Keep a lookout for these Aussie icons playing in the water.

11:30am Depart Millaa Millaa Falls

12:45pm Arrive Roscoe's Restaurant. Enjoy a full sumptuous buffet meal at Roscoes restaurant in the delightful country town of Innisfail. Choose from a wide variety of salads, vegetable dishes, hot meats, pasta, pizza, and an outstanding buffet of desserts, tea and coffee.

01:45pm Depart Roscoe's restaurant

01:55pm Arrive at Johnstone River for a Crocodile Cruise adventure. Search for crocodiles basking in the sun in their natural territory. Learn about the unusual breeding habits of the giant reptilian beasts. Enjoy some birdwatching along the fringes of ancient mangroves.

03:00pm Depart Johnstone River

04:00pm Arrive at Babinda Boulders. Walk along a rainforest path to the magnificent, breathtaking granite gorge created over millions of years. Swim in cool crystal waters, take a nice walk or relax in the sun under an ancient rainforest tree.

05:00pm Depart Babinda Boulders

06:00pm Arrive in Cairns Hotel

Available daily for private charter guests and groups.
